

CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS:

ESSAY COMPETITION, OPEN TO HIGH SCHOOL, COLLEGE AND UNIVERSITY STUDENTS:

TOPIC “Concession Agreements and the Management of Liberia’s Natural Resources: Challenges and Achievements”

The Kofi Annan Institute for Conflict Transformation (KAICT), of the University of Liberia, is committed to supporting peace initiatives in Liberia. In furtherance of this objective, the institute is launching an essay.

The essay competition is supported by the German Development Cooperation (GIZ).

The competition constitutes a component of the upcoming program “Natural Resource Day” to be hosted on Wednesday, May 23, 2017 at the Auditorium of the University of Liberia.

The essay competition is opened to High School, college and University Students with audacious ideas to address Natural Resource issues in Liberia.

TOPIC: “Concession Agreements and the Management of Liberia’s Natural Resources: Challenges and Achievements”

REQUIREMENTS:

- Length: 2000-2500 words
- Font: Times New Roman
- Font Size: 12
- Margin: 1.5 on both sides
- Please note: Plagiarism is strictly prohibited!
- Please state your name, address of school, phone and email on a cover page.

SUBMISSION:

Kindly submit your essay in hard and soft copies) to the Kofi Annan Institute for Conflict Transformation in the GD building 1st floor GD1-2 or GD1-4 on the University of Liberia Main Campus Capitol Hill and email account papafelesu@gmail.com /peaceline@yahoo.com/multidream2004@gmail.com. The competition opens March 21, 2017 and ends May 5, 2017.

All participants are therefore asked to submit their essay on or before May 5, 2017 mid-day. Submissions which do not meet the requirements will not be considered. For more information please visit www.kofiannaninstitute.org or call: 0886-559-440/0777-64-98-14

The winners will be announced and awarded at the Natural Resource Day on May 23, 2017 and will also be informed via phone/email.